

I request that no dilution of Indiana's no-call privacy law be enacted. I have been very happy with the dramatic reduction in annoying calls from telemarketers since Indiana adopted this law and would not want to see that reverse, even a bit. Indiana has achieved a hard-won solution to its telemarketer problem and would not benefit from a one-size-fits-all Federal law.